GCSE exam changes and Y11 Mock Results

Dear Y11 Students, Parents & Carers,

I hope you are well.

You will have seen in the media, I'm sure, lots of talk about the changes to GCSE exams this year. We are still awaiting the final guidance about exactly what these changes will look like, I'm afraid. I know you have lots of questions however, so in the meantime I wanted to share with you the position as we know it now and offer as much clarity as I could. Please find at the link below, a short video presentation which should help answer some of your questions.

Contained in the video are also instructions about how students can retrieve their November Mock Exam results. Please make sure you watch the video first however, as it contains important information about what students should do next with these results and how to interpret them.
