

Exam Guidelines and Regulations: Contextualised for KAA6

Where you will take your examinations

All examinations will take place in the Sports Hall with other rooms used for candidates requiring access arrangements.

Where you will sit in the exam room

Candidate desks are arranged in a grid of columns and rows that will be marked by letter and number as they have been during mock examinations.

- Candidates are seated by the paper being taken and by candidate number within that group.
- You can use the seating plan displayed outside the room to help locate your desk, your seat number will also be on your Exam Timetable.
- If you need any assistance, then ask an invigilator

What time your exams will start and finish

To maintain the security of the examination, all candidates sitting general qualifications examinations must start at the following times unless they have a timetable clash:

- The KAA6 morning session will begin at 9.00am
- The KAA6 afternoon session will begin at 2.00pm

KAA insists that candidates remain in examination rooms for the full time allocated for the paper

Exam conditions

Conditions for examinations will reflect the same conditions used for mock examinations:

- You should make sure that you are present, outside the venue at least 15 minutes before the published start time
- You will wait outside until invited into the examination room
- Details of the examinations taking place will be posted on the board outside the room
- This will include a seating plan that should help you to find your desk swiftly
- Candidates are under exam conditions from the moment they enter the examination room until they are given permission to leave by the invigilator
- Candidates must listen to and follow the instructions of the invigilator at all times in the exam room
- Candidates must not communicate with other candidates
- The centre number, start and finish times (plus any adjustments for candidates with extra time) will be displayed in the examination room
- Candidates are responsible for producing legible handwriting in their exams
- You must raise your hand if you require any additional answer sheets

What you should wear for your exams

Examination days are to be treated as any other school day: as such, Year 13 students are expected to sit their exams in professional business dress.
